Quay is a professional services business specialising in the project landscape, transforming strategy into fit-for-purpose delivery.

We provide clients with real world relevant knowledge via:

- Project Advisory
- Project Management & Delivery
- Project Capability Uplift

Established in 2006, we have obtained sustained growth by providing clients with a delivery environment supported by an assurance framework that allows them to tap into a wealth of accumulated knowledge, experience and collateral on key transformation deliverables.

We recognise that every business has its own DNA and we work with our clients to ensure that culture and capability are sufficiently considered when setting up and delivering their programs.

Quay provides the forward-thinking expertise to support business with preparing and managing the right conditions needed to implement effective, sustainable change.

Partnering with Quay

Quay has relevant and deep expertise in many project environments, having partnered with companies such as Leighton Contractors, News Limited, Sydney Trains, IAG and Macquarie Group.

We know that to deliver successful outcomes, there needs to be an open, honest and transparent relationship.

In partnering with us, you'll have access to:

- A recognised leader in managing and driving transformational projects
- Relevant and proven program/project setup

and delivery capability

- A trusted partner who will work with you to ensure your business outcomes are achieved.
- High calibre consultants
- Independent quality assurance across your project at no additional cost.

Assurance

Assurance is an essential part of working with Quay.

Quay can help you design and set up an assurance framework based on industry best practice and tailored to your needs, or complement your existing assurance function with highly experienced consultants on an “as needs” basis.

In each case, our focus is upon developing your assurance capability so that you achieve success.

Quay’s Assurance services protect your investment in the programs and projects that implement your strategies and deliver your next generation of products and services. This results in less risk, higher quality processes and outputs, better cost effectiveness, and increased certainty of achieving successful outcomes.

Our people

Quay understands that the path to success presents significant challenges for many organisations.

Our consultants are leaders in their fields and passionate about what they do. That passion ensures that our clients benefit from the relevant expertise of our consultants through effective set up and delivery of programs.

Quay takes the quality of delivery very seriously. We follow a rigorous process to ensure our consultants have the required skills, knowledge and experience for the role and place just as much importance on cultural fit for Quay and the Client.
